Job Title: Summer Intern/Co-op 2026 - Full Stack Software Engineer

Job ID: JR26010481

Application Deadline: January 22, 2026

Please note: This is an 8-month opportunity.

Our Full Stack Software Engineer Internship offers an exciting opportunity to build technical and soft skills, with a focus on React, Next.js, and Python FastAPI, while gaining hands-on experience in AI-driven solutions.

Position Responsibilities:

- Develop and demonstrate GenAI prototypes, such as chatbots or recommendation systems, integrated into new or existing applications.
- Assist in setting up or optimizing CI/CD pipelines to streamline development workflows.

When you join our team:

- We'll empower you to learn and grow the career you want.
- We'll recognize and support you in a flexible environment where well-being and inclusion are more than just words.
- As part of our global team, we'll support you in shaping the future you want to see.
