Job Title: Finance Co-op Intern

Job ID: 2601284

Application Deadline: January 30, 2026

What you'll be doing

Our Finance Student Program is designed to offer great work experience to compliment your classroom training and career goals. We are devoted to finding, selecting and training students who will make a positive impact on our company. The Finance Student Program activities allow you an opportunity to meet and network with company executives, employees, and fellow interns, as well as learn more about banking and the financial industry. Interns are assigned to a CIBC Finance team for the co-op term, and placement decisions are based on interests, skills, and position availability. Throughout the term, interns are provided with direction, coaching and mentoring so they may perform at their personal best.

At CIBC we enable the work environment most optimal for you to thrive in your role. Details on your work arrangement (proportion of on-site and remote work) will be discussed at the time of your interview
