Job Summary

The Intern, Bulk Market Analyst is responsible for assisting the Sales and Marketing team by gaining an understanding of customer needs through market research, traffic flow and corridor analysis. The position assists with commodities market research for Sales and Marketing activities to help establish new business opportunities. The incumbent supports a team whose goal is to grow CN's profitability and reach, deepen its strategic position, in addition to growing its contribution by expanding market share to generate revenue and volume growth.

Major Responsibilities

- Review the nature and scope of different bulk commodities and customer requirements
- Assess market and modal competition, service requirements and equipment availability
- Undertake research related to corridor pricing structure and modal competition
- Assist in gathering and compilation of market data
- Work closely with other members of the team to assess business opportunities

About CN

CN is a premium railroad that sustainably generates value for our customers, shareholders, employees, and stakeholders with an unwavering commitment to safety and service. Essential to the economy, to the customers, and to the communities it serves, CN safely transports more than 300 million tons of natural resources, manufactured products, and finished goods throughout North America every year. CN's network connects Canada's Eastern and Western coasts with the U.S. South through a 20,000-mile rail network. CN and its affiliates have been contributing to community prosperity and sustainable trade since 1919. CN powers the North American economy and is committed to programs supporting social responsibility and environmental stewardship.

At CN, we are dedicated to building North America's safest, most inclusive and sustainable railroad, which includes reflecting the communities in which we operate. Research shows that candidates often don't apply unless they feel they fit the job posting at 100%. To all potential applicants, even if you don't meet every job requirement listed in a posting, we still encourage you to apply. If you require an accommodation for the recruitment process (including alternate formats of materials, accessible meeting rooms or other accommodations), please get in touch with our team at cnrecruitment@cn.ca.
