What is the opportunity?

The opportunity is to be a part of a dynamic team within RBC Royal Bank's National Office group responsible for Credit Cards, Payments, Loyalty, and Transformation. You will work as part of an experienced Data and Analytics team that support these businesses with analytics and insights to support development of new opportunities, manage and support business priorities, track and understand key leading and lagging results to drive acquisition and growth in the competitive and innovate payments space where RBC leads with brands such as Avion Rewards, Ion+, RBC Avion Visa, payment innovations and partnerships.

What will you do?

Use your data and analytic skills to help business teams understand trends, solve problems and support business decisions including:

• Work with data partners to enhance visualization, data availability and automation for reporting needs

•Develop reports, using tools such as Tableau, required to meet business and financial imperatives

•Participate in meetings to gather and document business requirements

•Support business and product teams with data and insights

•Work in an agile settling supporting Kanban board updates, stand ups and meetings

What's in it for you?

We thrive on the challenge to be our best, progressive thinking to keep growing, and working together to deliver trusted advice to help our clients thrive and communities prosper. We care about each other, reaching our potential, making a difference to our communities, and achieving success that is mutual. In this role you will also:

• Leaders who support your development through coaching and managing opportunities

•Work in a dynamic, agile, collaborative, progressive and high performing culture

•Opportunities to do challenging work and make a difference

•Gain insights and build relationships to inform your career journey
