What is Geering Up?

UBC Geering Up Engineering Outreach is a non-profit organization dedicated to engaging the children and youth of British Columbia in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) through fun, innovative, and hands-on experiments and projects. Systemic barriers prevent many people from pursuing careers in STEM, so Geering Up strives to reach all children and youth, regardless of gender, ethnicity, culture, or socio-economic status. Since 1995, we have reached youth through events, summer camps, in-school workshops, community outreach trips, clubs, and more. Find more information about our programs here. Camps Instructors work in pairs to teach week-long STEM day-camps to up to 25 youth each week of the summer at one of our UBC Vancouver, Richmond, South Surrey, Coquitlam or North Vancouver locations.

What would you do in this role?

• Work with a co-Instructor to deliver educational and engaging science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) camp activities in week-long camps

•Classroom management

•Act as an Instructor and role model at camps and events

•Follow safety and risk management policies and ensure every student is safe and having fun

•Supervise, and provide guidance to volunteer personnel

•Complete all evaluations and reports in a timely manner

•Assist in prep tasks at the end of each day

•Perform other duties, as requested by the Camp Coordinators

Why Join Geering Up

• Science communication and teaching experience; teaching hours with Geering Up can typically be accepted by Education programs to fulfill admissions requirements

•First Aid & CPR certification (unless currently certified)

•Access to a national network of STEM outreach organizations. Learn more about the Actua network here

•Training on topics such as classroom management, working with youth with exceptionalities, utilizing educational technology

•Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion training

•Leadership & program development opportunities for returning staff members

Job Requirements
